New inspiration

Sunday September 29, 2019

For a long time no new writing happened on the blog.

Encouraging a friend to write for the blog so far did not take off.
The offer is still valid. Our friend is still welcome to write, if it happens.

Howsoever, watching the latest happenings in the world and speaking about it with friends, the writing got inspired and started to happen.

Lalla and Pan would like to share this with you.

Love,
Pan and Lalla
